Media Release Opt-Out Form

Photos bring life to and help tell the story about St Andrew's. We would like share photographs on our website (www.standrews.net) of congregation members engaged in parish-related activities and events that highlight the life of our vibrant community. All photographs published on the website are governed by the photo policy below. However, we value your privacy and will therefore not run captions which identify individuals by name, except for official staff and vestry photos. If you do not want any pictures of yourself or a family member to run, please fill out the Opt-Out form below and return it to the church office.

Photo policy: St. Andrew's website may display photographs of parish members engaged in parish activities without identifying the subject of the photograph. Participation in such activities implies permission for publication for members of the congregation over 18 unless a signed "Media Release Opt Out" form is on file in the church office. Photographs of parishioners under the age of 18 will not be posted without parental consent, written or verbal, and minors will never be individually identified. After publication, the subject of a photograph can request its removal from the website on any grounds by contacting the church office. All photographs posted on the website will remain the intellectual property of the photographer and will require copyright information if the terms of use are different from the terms posted for other content on the website.

- You need only sign and return this form if you do not want your photograph used by the church.
- If you have no objection to church use of your photograph, do not sign or return this form.
