WORSHIP COMMISSION

The usual worship service in the Episcopal Church—the Eucharist—is often referred to as “the liturgy.” This Greek word, used for centuries, means “the work of the people,” and means that we all take part in the worship of God, each of us saying our prayers, singing, making our confession, to receiving communion. While clergy are trained and ordained to lead worship, it really does take all of us to make this time the worship of God.

FROM OUR RECTOR

My Lord God...

I shared this prayer known the world over with our guests this past week during our Hypothermia Prevention Program. While this prayer does make sense for those who are homeless, I suggest these words may very well be true for a number of us: those who are unemployed or under-employed, those discerning what they want to do next in life, those who are trying to figure out this whole church and God thing, those who are contemplating a radical downsizing and move in their life, to those who may be simply bored and wondering if “this” is all there is to life, even to churches defining their mission for a new day. This is a prayer for all us, those of us who have a place to call home and those who try to answer the question of where to find home.

Windy⁺

“My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think that I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire. And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road, though I may know nothing about it. Therefore will I trust you always, though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death. I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.”

- Thomas Merton
