RECTOR
THE REV. WILL PACKARD
will@standrews.net

Dear Friends in Christ,

At the beginning of this month of June, we continue in the Easter Season and look forward to our celebrations of Pentecost (with the 70s picnic) and Trinity Sunday. We also recognize Memorial Day this weekend. We are also coming off of a wonderful Celebration of New Ministry! What does this month bring us?

As much as I want to write a reflection on numerous other topics, my heart is heavy with the recent mass shootings in Buffalo and Uvalde. In prayer, I admit that at times I must compartmentalize because the pain involved with empathy alone seems like too much to endure.

"Thus says the Lord: a voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping. Rachel is weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children because they are no more." – Jeremiah 31:15

The preceding verses are of joy for Israel's restoration with dancing and music. Rachel is this ancestral and literal mother whose harsh, uncontrollable weeping is for one reason, "because they are no more." Our prophet Jeremiah recognizes the bright and joyous future in a restored Israel while also living into the detriment of humanity. Jeremiah provides hope in reference to Isaiah 40:1, "Comfort, comfort, my people," and in Jeremiah's later verse 17, "there is hope for your future, says the Lord." God receives the cries and prayers from Rachel and responds.

While prayers seem insufficient, they are necessary and lead to the Spirit's work in the world. In crying out to God we (humanity) receive God's loving comfort that transcends a cheap peace with an endurable presence. The restoration of Israel, through God, required the movement of the Israelites. The response to tears and prayers may also lead to action.

We come to the church and know that we, in the Episcopal Church, are the via media, the middle way, however, this does not preclude us from requesting individual and collective responses to continued wounds in our society. You can see the number of areas in which the Episcopal Public Policy Network advocates for particular issues on Capitol Hill. You can even customize a letter to go to your representatives on their website advocating for bipartisan gun reform. We can speak in our own circles and from our own pain, we can move from a place of compartmentalization to a prayerful, Spirit-filled response.

Where ever you are as you are reading this, we lift our common prayers for the world and in particular for those areas and for families experiencing such lament. Please be aware that such events may bring to light old experiences and traumas in our lives and if you feel "off" it just might be grief coming through. These are the moments to accept God's grace which is the foundation for Israel's restoration and seen in our Incarnate God.

I pray with and for all of you this week and this month.

Faithfully yours,

VESTRY NEWS

SENIOR WARDEN

BETSY COTTEN

srwarden@standrews.net

I welcome June, the slow transition from spring into summer, and our family trips to the farmer's market, the return of fireflies, and the evening thunderstorms.

Here at St Andrew's, we'll continue our 50th Anniversary Celebration this month with the 70s Picnic on June 5th. I hope to see you there and dressed to impress. ;) We'll have Trinity Sunday on June 12th and an Evensong that evening.

The Vestry is working hard to establish a baseline for ourselves; we're all discovering where we are now. What are the things that are working for us currently, what do we need to bring back, and what do we need to rethink? Across the commissions, you'll find us asking questions to understand what's working now and who is here and looking to understand your hopes for the future here. You'll see highlights from the Commissions in the pages that follow. There is so much good happening here; we have much to celebrate.

I'd like to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude to all those who make our worship services so wonderful. From major celebrations, like the Celebration of New Ministry, to our weekly services, the Worship Commission is full of volunteers working to help each of our services be a chance to connect and listen. Thank you to the Altar Guild, Acolytes, A/V Team, Flower Guild, Choir, Greeters, Readers & Intercessors, Lay Eucharist Visitors, and Ushers for all your ministry in making St. Andrew's a wonderful place to worship, serve and belong.

If you're looking for ways to learn more about the church or get involved but are unsure where to start, I encourage you to reach out to Karan and Dave. Or, maybe consider investigating a new to you service in June. Wednesday at 9:00 a.m., Saturday at 6:00 p.m., Sunday at 8:00 a.m., and 10:00 a.m.; each has its unique feel and cadence.

I hope to see you this month. May we come together and hold one another in worship and celebration.

Fellowship News

Sarah Akins & Stacey Peters | fellowship@standrews.net

June is another month for Fellowship! We just finished May with a bang – Father Will's Celebration of New Ministry, Teacher Appreciation Luncheon, and Graduate Reception. Up next is our Annual Parish Picnic/70's Party on Sunday, June 5, following the 10:00 service. And, those participating in Foyer Groups will be notified by next week about their new groups.

Worship & Welcome News

Dave Umberger & Karan Wright | worship@standrews.net

50th Anniversary events coming up include a picnic with a 70s theme and cover band (June 5th), a golf tournament (June 10th), several celebration concerts, and a lovely celebratory dinner in November, not to mention all of the special guests throughout!

Do you speak a foreign language? We're looking for speakers of languages other than English to take part in our Pentecost Sunday services. Please contact Julie Morgan at lems@standrews.net.

More Ushers are needed for Sunday morning services; please contact Dave Umberger and Karan Wright to volunteer to be a church usher, intercessor, or altar guild assistant.

The Altar Guild will be having a simple training session on a Saturday morning in June—a date soon to be decided by Marlene Taggart. The members of the Altar Guild care for the church linens and prepare the altar for services.

Net Submissions

If you have an article for the Monthly Net, please email it to Emily (emily@standrews.net) no later than the 20th of the month. All submissions are subject to approval.

Formation News

Woody Browne & Sarah Gregory | formation@standrews.net

Most merciful God, whose wisdom is beyond our understanding. Deal graciously with the families of the victims of the Uvalde school shooting in their grief. Surround them with your love, that they may not be overwhelmed by their loss, but have confidence in your goodness, and strength to meet the days to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Rt. Rev. Ian T. Douglas, Bishop Diocesan
The Rt. Rev. Laura J. Ahrens, Bishop Suffragan

I wanted to reach out to our parishioners this month to extend my gratitude to you all for sharing your time and your families' time at Sunday School over the past year that I've gotten to know you all better and to share in my excitement for the future of Formation at St. Andrew's.

Unfortunately, my heart is incredibly heavy, writing a couple days after an elementary school was senselessly attacked in Texas, leaving scores of young children and two teachers unnecessarily dead.

One of our Vestry's Foundations this year is to Engage in Relationships. In times of continued, incomprehensible acts of terror, it is important that we connect with one another in love and support in this time of re-traumatization. It is also important that our children are encouraged to express their feelings and that we avail ourselves to be there for them to answer their questions directly, and to let them know of God's glory and light after death.

Looking more closely at Formation through engaging relationships, we will be releasing a survey to our families in the coming months because we want to better understand our parishioners' needs through Formation's ministry. We would ask that the survey be shared with our children too to more holistically know what they most enjoy about Sunday School; what, if anything, you or they would change about Sunday School; What are some ways that you think we could make our church family more welcoming for new parishioners and what if any feedback related to attending different churches that your soul found fulfilling, which would better serve the St. Andrew's family.

Our hearts will continue to grieve for the victims and their families and friends for these senseless acts. Let us give to the departed, eternal rest.

OUTREACH

Fairfax County Volunteer Service Awards

Doug Wood & Jewell Gould | outreach@standrews.net

The FACETS Hot Meals program is the recipient of a 2022 Fairfax County Volunteer Service Award given by Volunteer Fairfax, a nonprofit group that coordinates and assists volunteer and charitable organizations serving Fairfax County. Thank you to all the Hot Meals volunteers for continuing to support our community by contributing your time, talent, and funding to this important mission. St. Andrew's has been serving an average of over 200 meals per month during the past 3 months as the continuing pandemic as well as factors such as inflation, including food costs, continue to affect our community.

El Hogar Forum

Doug Wood & Jewell Gould | outreach@standrews.net

Please mark your calendars for the July 10th visit by Tim Monroe, Executive Director of El Hogar. Tim will give the sermon at 10:00 a.m. on that date as well as host a forum hour afterwards to further discuss El Hogar, with which St. Andrew's has had a long relationship, and the ways we can help.

FACETS Forum

Doug Wood & Jewell Gould | outreach@standrews.net

Please keep an eye out for our planned FACETS forum hour this Fall. FACETS, which provides food, housing, and transitional support to homeless people in Fairfax County, is the largest recipient of Outreach funding from St. Andrew's and also receives a significant contribution of volunteer hours. We would like to highlight our parish's involvement in three main efforts: Hot Meals preparation and distribution, the week-long Hypothermia Prevention program, and our contribution to FACETS transitional housing. We are hoping to have a representative from FACETS, as well as our FACETS ministry leads, speak at the forum about the importance of this program and ways parishioners can be involved.

One Thousand Days of Love

Doug Wood & Jewell Gould | outreach@standrews.net

St. Andrew's is planning to participate in 1000 Days of Love, a program sponsored by Episcopal Relief and Development, that focuses on the child's first 1,000 days of life, as part of our 50th Anniversary Celebration. This program focuses on African, South and Central American countries that need support for newborn children through the first stages of their lives. We would as a parish become involved in providing time and talent to help our families and children understand the importance of having these supports, not only for our families but for others in the world. Look for more information coming soon about this program. You can also learn more by visiting the website. www.episcopalrelief.org/1000daysoflove.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Stirring the Waters

Sarah Akins & Janet Rife | sacred_ground@standrews.net

You might have heard Father Will mention a new church group called "Stirring the Waters." So, who are we? We are the 10 folks who participated in the Episcopal Church's Sacred Ground film- and readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. We finished our studies several months ago, but then we realized that we weren't finished after all. In fact, we were just beginning. Now we've changed our name to Stirring the Waters, and we're exploring what to do with the knowledge we've gained and with the feelings the programs have stirred within us. We'll also be looking at what more the St. Andrew's community can do to reach the Episcopal Church's (and, indeed, Jesus') goal of "beloved community."

Over the next months – and, hopefully, years! – we'll be meeting for continued studies and discussions. And we plan to offer additional Sacred Ground courses so that others at St. Andrew's can have the opportunity to participate in this excellent course – and, if desired, join us in Stirring the Waters.

Questions? Please don't hesitate to chat with Linda Leong, Wayne Leong, Christie Dasher, Jane Gironde, Bob Heyer, Doug Wood, Vinnie Zagurski, Peggy Fink, Janet Rife, or Sarah Akins.

Parish Retreat to Shrine Mont

Martha Turner | shrinemont@standrews.net

The parish retreat to Shrine Mont is a weekend that offers the opportunity to step away from our hectic lives. You'll find fall foliage, fresh mountain air, family time, worship, reflection, fellowship, and fun at this retreat center in Orkney Springs, VA. We stay in the historic Shrine Mont cottages and dine on famous home-style meals.

This year's retreat will be the weekend of October 28th-30th. Don't miss out on this wonderful St. Andrew's tradition for the whole family. Registration will be available soon.

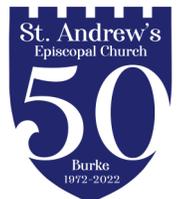

VBS Volunteers

Amy Dutton | amy@standrews.net

In order to make our VBS week (July 18-22) the best it can be, we need help from the congregation. Most help is needed the week of VBS, but there are other opportunities to volunteer in the weeks before. Any amount of help is welcome, even if it's only for one day.

To sign up to volunteer, go here: <http://tiny.cc/StA-VBS-22>. Just select "volunteer" in the drop-down menu and complete the form. You can also email Amy for more information.

50 YEARS OF ST. ANDREW'S

Celebrating Our Beautiful Church

Rosemary Phillips | 50th@standrews.net

Have you ever found yourself in the Nave and consciously taken in the beauty of the space: simple and lofty, warmed with the rich colors of wood, needlepoint, and stained glass, quietly charged with the commanding presence of the large altar and wood cross above? Outside, have you found instant calm in the Memorial Garden amidst its carefully tended flowers and shrubs? Or have you explored the grounds beyond the Parish Hall, in the former Graham property, recognizing signs of ongoing transformation and imagining future possibilities?

As we celebrate our 50th anniversary let's offer thanksgivings for the beautiful church that St. Andrew's has become, a place that is welcoming and inspires worship and ministry both within and beyond our walls. Most especially, may we remember and give thanks for past and present generations of parishioners, for their boundless and unselfish gifts of time and energy, creativity and faith, generosity of spirit and of purse. And, with God's help and for His greater purposes in our lives, may we be inspired to continue in these ways through the years to come.

Eucharist for St. Andrew's Mission was celebrated by US Army Chaplain Allen Brown at Burke School, in 1972. The first altar was a piece of plywood on folding legs, according to early parishioner, Fred Beck. Note the small wooden cross, St. Andrew's first. Today you'll find it in a glass case just outside the Nave, a commemoration made for St. Andrew's 25th anniversary.

Altar preparations at Orange Hunt Elementary ca. 1974-1979. Families simply pitched in to provide basic needs for worship and fellowship while additional gifts were offered by area churches. Pictured is St. Andrew's first real altar built by Vestry member and master craftsman, Lee Overson. Described as a "Church in a Box," it was used to store hymnals, prayer books, and carpet square kneelers during the week and then rolled out for services on Sunday. Among other items, Overson also made a matching lectern, our Baptismal Font, and Advent wreath holder, all of which remain in use today. St. James Church, Centreville, donated the candlesticks.

As with most homes, St. Andrew's new building had a long punch list. Furnishings and other needs had to be addressed, keeping early junior wardens and tireless parish members busy. Informed by tradition and ingenuity, St. Andrew's dedication service assured a beautiful Eucharist Table in what is the Parish Hall today. Note the Overson altar and matching lectern, earthenware Eucharist vessels crafted by Chris Fleet, and the St. Andrew's Banner created by Mildred Van Aiken, mother of Scootie Prior, Randall Prior's wife. Velveteen material from Scootie's wedding dress formed part of the banner. A used electronic organ was donated by Good Shepherd Episcopal Church. A cross was installed just outside the Parish Hall where it remains planted today. In 1982, the first of several needlepoint projects were completed: kneelers with Biblical references to Saint Andrew crafted for use by clergy, lay readers, and acolytes.

Parish membership grew rapidly and enlarging the church quickly became a priority. In 1985, our church expanded to include the present Nave, Narthex (gathering space outside the sanctuary), Chapel, and education wing.

During construction, the exterior cross was lifted to the Nave tower and bolted into place. In due course the interior was ready. The Rev. Prior, parishioners, and others participated in raising the cross, surely an emotional and possibly anxious time. In that year's annual report, the Rev.

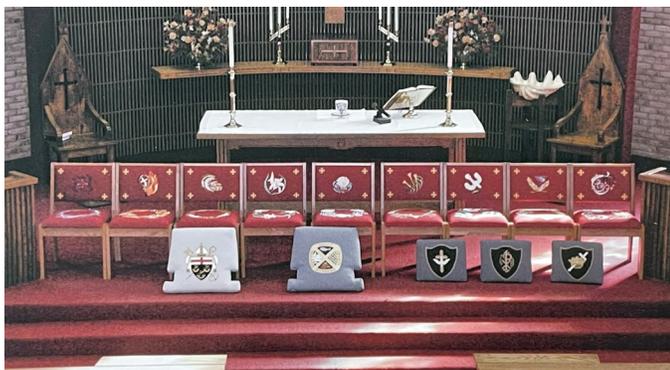

Prior commented that the exterior cross was particularly satisfying as it proclaimed our faith to the Burke community and the ministry to come. Note: from outside and within the Nave, both crosses are placed so that, according to church tradition, we face East towards Jerusalem and typically face East while reciting the Nicene Creed.

The new Nave seemed almost spartan, though warmed with rich red carpet and many wood tones. The windows were clear glass, but that would soon change. The Overson Baptismal Font, St. Andrew's Banner, and tall candlesticks linked the new with the old, as did the Overson altar and lectern which fit perfectly in the new Chapel. Meanwhile, a new altar was constructed for use during Children's Chapel in the Parish Hall.

The years between 1985 and the early 2000s witnessed continued parish growth and the accomplishment of several major projects which enhanced our worship experience and space.

Parishioner and artist, Elizabeth (Liz) Mears first designed and constructed the Holy Cross and Holy Spirit stained glass windows in the Chapel (1989-1991). She was next asked to tackle the eight Nave windows. The overall theme of the windows is the Salvation History of the church within which each window has a specific topic, such as Creation, Resurrection, the Passion, and Eucharist. Dedicated in 1994, the Nave windows were underwritten by individuals, families, groups, and the Parish at large as both memorials for loved ones and thanksgivings. Follow the link to learn more about the content of the windows and the project: www.standrews.net/about-us/parish-windows.

As the windows neared completion, plans began for the creation of needlepoint altar rail kneelers. Designed by Liz Mears and Martha Turner, the images of flowing water, vines, sheaves of wheat and grapes evoked Baptism and Eucharist themes. Stitch by stitch, 16 kneelers were crafted which, when placed together at the altar rail, made a continuum signifying our unity in Christ. The canvasses were painted by Denise Pearsall. Some 20 parish women led by Joanne Boyer and Martha, completed the kneelers in the spring of 1997. Yet another project was completed in 2002: needlepoint cushions and kneelers for the Bishop, Priest, and other altar chairs.

St. Andrew's has been richly blessed with these and so many other gifts that contribute to our worship services, among them: frontals to cover the altar reflecting the changing church seasons; matching chasubles and stoles for clergy; chalice and paten and accompanying vessels for Holy Eucharist; handcrafted prayer desks; tables for the Narthex, a Sanctuary Light, and Tabernacle; brass flower vases, an Advent frontal designed and crafted for the Chapel, candlesticks and frontal for the children's altar; gifts towards pipe organ and Graham property acquisition; even hundreds of copies of Lift Every Voice and Sing hymnals.

The church Nave, Chapel, and Narthex we occupy today reflect the repairs and future-oriented improvements which were accomplished as part of the Ministry for Tomorrow! Capital Campaign (2007 - 2010). Highlights included: roof repairs; improved acoustics; slate flooring to replace the red carpet; enhanced space at the altar and enlivened reredos (screen); installation of our pipe organ, opening up the Chapel, and brightening the Narthex via skylights; and purchasing of the Graham property.

Between the south side of the church and nearby Sydenstricker Road lies the former Graham property, grounds that offer tantalizing possibilities for increased ministry in the years to come. Much has already happened: collaboration with our Boy Scout troops and individual Eagle Scout candidates resulted in building a fire pit, labyrinth, pre-school outdoor activity area, and an outdoor chapel. Pictured is the altar and cross constructed by Paul Hardin from wood that was part of the Graham home (2015-2017).

One wonders how this space may change in coming years, how it will look, and to what new purposes it may be dedicated to further St. Andrew's mission. One wonders, but with confidence. Referring to the efforts of those who created the altar rail kneelers, the Rev. Prior stated in his April 1997 dedication sermon:

"...the model for ministry, for the proclamation of the gospel and for the use of gifts for the good of the whole body has never lost its relevance or power. To give unstintingly for the wellbeing of others whose resources are limited, to use your gifts to glorify God and edify the church is still at the heart of what we are about as a community.

That process goes on in the church in countless ways today, and at St. Andrew's we are richly blessed both by the dedication of resources to meet the needs of others and by gifts freely and unhesitatingly offered to glorify God and serve the church."

Located outside, near the Nave's east wall is the Memorial Garden. Envisioned as part of the 1985 expansion it is intended for the interment of church members and their immediate families. Dedicated on All Saints' Day, 1990, the Garden has involved numerous improvements over the years and is a wonderful place of comfort and contemplation. Designed by parishioner Michael Walsh, it was shepherded for many years by John, Shirley, and Chelsey Dunham and today's faithful gardener, Chris Umberger. Recent renovations were overseen by Paul Foley and Christine Kelly.

The grounds surrounding our church also have been nurtured over the decades by junior wardens, lawn mowing teams, and other green thumb folks. Many have given generously of their time, abilities, and financial resources to maintain, improve and enhance the grounds. Pictured is the lovely gathering spot just outside the Parish Hall, dedicated to Glinda Faye Richardson, as a place to find comfort, inspiration, and peace.
