RECTOR
THE REV. WILL PACKARD
will@standrews.net

Dear Friends in Christ,

"When the days drew near for him to be taken up, (Jesus) set his face to go to Jerusalem" (Luke 9:51). As we approach the end of Lent, we journey with Christ toward the cross and, ultimately, the empty tomb. Holy Week, beginning on Palm Sunday and culminating on Easter Sunday, invites us to walk this sacred path with renewed devotion. Just as we were invited into a Holy Lent on Ash Wednesday, so too are we invited to enter fully into Holy Week, preparing our hearts for the joy of the Resurrection.

What is Holy Week?

Each day holds unique significance as we recount the Passion of Christ. Here's what we will observe together:

Palm Sunday

We welcome Jesus into Jerusalem, waving palms and shouting "Hosanna!" Yet, by Good Friday, our cries turn to "Crucify him!" During this service, we read the entire Passion Narrative, tracing Christ's journey from triumph to the cross. And yes, there is a donkey!

Holy Monday-Wednesday

Each day offers special readings, and the Eucharist may be observed. On Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., we will gather for Holy Eucharist.

Maundy Thursday

The word "Maundy" comes from the Latin mandatum, meaning "commandment." On this night, we recall Christ's new commandment to love one another as He has loved us. We will wash feet, just as Jesus washed the feet of His disciples. We will also remember the Last Supper and Christ's mandate to celebrate the Eucharist. The service concludes with the solemn stripping of the altar, leaving the sanctuary bare as we depart in silence. This marks the beginning of the Triduum, the great three days.

Good Friday

At noon, the hour when Christ was crucified, we will gather for the Stations of the Cross, walking through seven scriptural stations, reading, and praying at each. At 7:00 p.m., we will continue our observance with a traditional Good Friday service. Eucharist is not celebrated on this day. This somber day calls us to reflect on the depth of Christ's sacrifice.

Holy Saturday

At 9:00 a.m., we will hold a brief service as prescribed by the Book of Common Prayer. At this moment, Christ is in the tomb, and we wait. Following the service, we will prepare the church for the joy to come.

The Great Vigil of Easter

This ancient and beautiful service begins after sunset on Holy Saturday, 8:00 p.m. We kindle the new fire outside and carry the light into the church. As we move through the service, we proclaim the Resurrection with joyful acclamation. This powerful liturgy marks the turning point from death to life, darkness to light.

Easter Day

Join us for one of our three joyous celebrations at 7:30, 9:00, and 11:15 a.m.! Easter is the holiest day of the year—a triumphant declaration that death has been conquered. As people of the Resurrection, we rejoice in the hope Christ has given us!

This overview offers just a glimpse into the depth and beauty of Holy Week. You are invited to come and experience it for yourself. If you are traveling, you may attend services elsewhere or join us online. Wherever you find yourself this Holy Week, may it be blessed.

Faithfully yours,

Will

SENIOR WARDEN

JEFF REBA

srwarden@standrews.net

As we journey through this Lenten season, we are reminded of the significance this time holds in our spiritual lives.

Lent is a period of reflection, repentance, and renewal, inviting us to strengthen our relationship with God and prepare our hearts for the celebration of Easter.

We come together to worship, share in the sacraments, and support each other in our spiritual endeavors. Each step of our Lenten journey brings us closer to the joy of Easter when we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and the promise of new life.

This Lenten season also highlights the importance of giving our time and talents to the church's ministries. Your dedication to serving in various capacities, whether through volunteering, attending fellowship events, or contributing to our worship services, reflects the spirit of Lent. By sharing your gifts, you help to build a stronger, more vibrant parish that reflects Christ's love and compassion.

The past month has been filled with wonderful fellowship and engagement in our parish. Our EYC (Episcopal Youth Community) has seen a fantastic turnout since combining middle and high school students, thriving under Mtr. Maria's leadership as they build connections and friendships and deepen their faith together.

The Pancake Supper was a great success, raising funds to support the Youth Work Camp this summer. Thank you to Stacey Peters for organizing the event and all of the pancake flippers, servers, and others who participated. After organizing our Pancake Suppers for several years, Stacey would like to give someone else the opportunity. If you are interested in helping keep this wonderful tradition alive, please let Stacey or Pam Hardin know.

JUNIOR WARDEN

ANNE BRANNAM

jrwarden@standrews.net

Spring is upon us, which is a busy time for us! Minor repairs are being made around the church, in addition to fixing up the handicapped parking spaces and the wooden cross so that we will be ready to go for Easter. The PRC is working to get the roof repaired and the lighting updated in the kitchen and office. But, now the grounds are ready to be fixed up too!

We are also very grateful to Rebecca Umberger and Sandy Rogers for coordinating the Lenten Soup Suppers and for all of the volunteers who brought the excellent soups, salads, and bread. A special thank you to Beth Behn, Gene Girando, Donna Osthaus, Pam Rozelsky, and the youth of the parish for sharing the inspiring stories of their faith journeys.

We are very grateful to our Outreach Team for organizing the inspirational visit from Denis Vargas of El Hogar, providing us with a meaningful opportunity to learn about and support their mission. We are truly blessed by the dedication and generosity of our church community!

Our upcoming Commission Sync on April 2nd is a valuable opportunity for all committees and ministry teams to come together, share updates, and collaborate on our church's mission. We encourage everyone currently serving on a committee, commission, or team to attend, as this gathering helps strengthen our shared vision and coordination for upcoming events. If you're not yet involved but feel called to serve, this is the perfect time to learn more—there are many opportunities to use your time and talents to support our ministries. Whether you have a passion for outreach, worship, formation, or another area, we'd love to help you find your place!

We're rolling out Realm to make connecting, coordinating, and communicating easier for all of us—because we could all use fewer emails and more clarity. Change can feel overwhelming, but you're not in this alone—our team is here to support you every step of the way. Think of Realm as less paperwork, more participation, and a smoother way to do what we do best: build community. And we're finally getting that directory we're all craving! See the article below for more details.

We will have Spring Clean up on April 26th, so mark your calendars! Please bring any rakes, shovels, work gloves, wheelbarrows, weed poppers, etc. Some interior work will go on as well, so bring cleaning supplies. We will begin at 9:00 a.m. and work until 1:00 p.m. (or sooner, if we have a big turn out!). I hope to see many of you there!

CHILDREN, YOUTH, & THEIR FAMILIES

ASSOCIATE RECTOR FOR CHILDREN, YOUTH, & FAMILIES

THE REV. MARIA MAGUIRE

maria@standrews.net

24 "Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. 25 The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. 26 But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. 27 The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash."

Dear ones,

Have you heard? There is a Renovation Team at St. Andrew's!

No, we aren't pulling up floorboards or choosing paint colors. But we are taking measured steps to renovate the structural supports of our children and youth ministries.

The purpose of the Renovation Team is to build a children and youth ministry that lasts for the long haul, like the house built on rock. It is a slow, deliberate process—one that requires not just one individual but a team of dedicated individuals who are willing to help build the infrastructure, nail by nail, brick by brick. Progress may seem slow and incremental in this 18-month process, which began last spring; but the results will be exponential across years of investment of time and resources. It is a really exciting time to invest in the future of St. Andrew's.

I am thrilled to share with you the dedicated members of our re-formed team: Katie Campbell, Renee Cone, Erica Dillon, Mtr Maria (chair), Lisa Rollo, Laura Sabo, Michael Tune, and Ali Wiedeman. In between the two iterations of this team—the one formed prior to my arrival and the one re-formed after—we have had several outstanding members carrying on their projects with determination and resolve. I want to thank Katie Campbell, who gathered information and organized an accurate database of our children, youth, and families, so that we can effectively communicate with them. Her hard work laid the groundwork for the transition to Realm with Sunday School volunteer scheduling and attendance tracking.

Thank you as well to Lisa Rollo and Renee Cone, who have made painstaking, time-consuming efforts to list and create job descriptions for all the volunteer roles necessary to operate St. Andrew's children, youth, and family ministry programming for an entire year. Job descriptions improve the overall health of the church by clearly stating expectations from the outset of any volunteer ministry role, rendering more clarity among interconnected roles, and helping us lift up new leadership in teams that may be stretched thin or otherwise desiring new people. These descriptions are already proving invaluable to us as we invite more people into shared ministry.

As you may be seeing already, running successful children, youth, and family ministries (and any ministry, for that matter) requires solid infrastructure—that is to say,

controlling documents, which include:

- directories/databases
- an annual events calendar
- job descriptions
- master recruiting list
- a curriculum template.

Once control documents are made, visioning documents are created:

- a mission statement
- measurable three-year goals
- a statement of values
- an organizational chart.

By setting into place these systems, procedures, and documents, we ensure that valuable structures are taken care of, refreshed, and held within a system, which can endure changes in leadership, volunteer or paid, across time. You might say that those who build sustainable ministries are like the wise man who built his house on rock. "The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock." (Mt. 7:25).

Instead of building our ministry architecture on sand, which is all too tempting for many churches who want quick, flashy results, we instead endeavor to build our ministry architecture on the rock. There is one true Rock which sustains and enlivens this whole process, and that is Jesus. We ask you to pray for us as we continue this vital work of renovating our children, youth, and family ministry architecture. A big thank you to the Prayer Guild who has been praying for us already. We invite all to please pray for us as we build, that Christ will grant us guidance, peace, and endurance.

In Christ,
Maria

Let's Get Connected: Realm Training for Group Leaders

Sarah Akins & Betsy Cotten | realm@standrews.net

The Realm Rollout Team is excited to launch the next step in bringing Realm Connect to our church family! Right now, we're scheduling trainings for all group leaders, and we need your help. We know life is busy, and let's be honest—technology can be both amazing and mildly frustrating. But Realm is here to make your life easier—whether you're leading a ministry team, a small group, or an event committee. Think of Realm as the cozy coffee shop where your group meets—a space where everyone stays connected, shares updates, and supports one another. With Realm, you'll be able to:

- Communicate effortlessly (No more endless email chains!)
- Schedule gatherings easily (Because surprise meetings aren't fun for anyone.)
- Support each other better (Prayer requests? Encouragement? All in one place.)

So, where do we start? Right now, we're walking our group leaders through the first steps—setting up profiles, updating information, and learning the basics. If you lead a fellowship-based group (like Men's or Women's Fellowship, Choir, or the Prayer Guild), please reach out to us soon so we can get you set up. If you're not a group leader, don't worry—you haven't missed anything! We'll be reaching out to you personally when it's time to get you started. That said, if you're eager to jump in early, we'd love to have you! Just send us an email at realm@standrews.net, and we'll be happy to walk you through it.

We understand—new technology can feel overwhelming. But we're taking this one step at a time, and you are not alone. The Realm Rollout Team is here to answer your questions, guide you through the process, and make sure you feel confident and comfortable.

Ultimately, Realm Connect is more than just a tool—it's a way to strengthen our church community. With Realm, you can RSVP to events, manage your giving, update your profile, and find opportunities to serve—all in one place. For leaders, Realm will help us better support those who serve, ensuring no one carries too much alone. It will also act as a 24/7 Ministry Fair, making it easy to see all the ways you can get involved.

If you're a group leader, please sign up for training today. If you're not, we'll be in touch soon—but if you're ready now, let us know. Fun fact: If you sign up ahead of time instead of just showing up, we'll have snacks ready for you. Just saying.

Shrine Mont Parish Retreat

Betsy Cotten | shrinemont@standrews.net

Did you know that nestled among the towering trees, in the hush of the Shenandoah Valley, rests a sacred space—a quiet sanctuary where the heart exhales and the soul finds home? Within this enchanting retreat, the Cathedral Shrine of the Transfiguration rises among the hills, cradled in the arms of Shrine Mont, our Diocesan Retreat Center. Here, the world slows. Here, time bends to a gentler rhythm, where people are more important than things, where prayer and rest matter more than appointments and tasks. Our Youth just returned from their retreat there, and we're looking forward to the Parish Retreat this fall.

Each fall, we gather our weary, our hurried, our longing, and we make the pilgrimage—setting down the weight of our days to take up something lighter, something holier: the gift of one another. In the golden glow of autumn's turning, we lean into community. There is space here for the deep conversation that lingers long past sunset, for the quiet revelation of God's presence in rustling leaves and sacred hush. It is a time set apart, a time to be together.

Mornings open with worship and prayer, the kind that settles deep and stays with you. We gather in sacred rhythm—sharing stories, breaking bread, lifting our hearts. Afternoons are for adventure, play, and rest—hiking wooded trails, teeing off on the golf course, savoring a slow afternoon at the winery or pumpkin patch. Some curl up on the porch, book in hand, letting the stillness seep in. And when evening falls, we circle the campfire, watching embers dance as laughter and song rise into the night. There are s'mores and whispered prayers, Compline under a sky spilled with stars.

Meals are shared around long tables, served family-style, rich with tradition—homemade apple butter and warm rolls, fried chicken and green beans. It's in the breaking of bread that memories are woven. You'll hear the laughter of children over butt buns (ask Father Will), and you'll find yourself in the kind of conversation that lingers in the heart long after the weekend ends. For many, Shrine Mont has been where friendships were deepened, faith found fresh roots, and silence spoke the loudest. Come as you are. Come and be held in this sacred pause. Come and find rest. We would love to welcome you.

Save the date for the Parish Retreat October 24th-26th. Registration opens soon.

Worship Commission Spotlight: Lay Ministry

Lori Foster | worship@standrews.net

Lay Ministers are visible signs of Christ's presence among us and are essential to our worship. Lectors read Holy Scripture appointed for our services; Intercessors lead the Nicene Creed and the Prayers of the People; Lay Eucharistic Ministers offer the chalice or paten during the Eucharist; and Worship Leaders conduct the Evening Prayer and Taizé services. We have a particular need for more Intercessors and those who can serve at Saturday evening and Sunday 8:00 a.m. services. January Layman-Wood schedules the Lay Ministers (lems@standrews.net).

Lay Eucharistic Visitors take Eucharist to those who are unable to attend services in person due to illness, mobility challenges, caregiving responsibilities, or other circumstances. Deb Braun coordinates the Lay Eucharistic Visitors (levs@standrews.net).

If you feel called to serve or would like to learn more about this meaningful ministry, please reach out. If you are already on the team and would like to expand your role, we would be glad to provide training.

Childcare Help

Katie Campbell | formation@standrews.net

We are looking for volunteers to assist in our Pre-K & K class every Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. (or 10:00 to 11:15 if there is no Sunday School). While we have a paid staff member, we need an additional volunteer helper to ensure the safety and well-being of all the children. Teenagers (14+) can earn service hours for their time. If you'd like to volunteer, please sign up here: <http://tiny.cc/babywatch-spr25> (April to June dates).

Lenten Soup Supper Series

The Rev. Will Packard | will@standrews.net

Our Lenten Soup Suppers this year has the theme (other than tasty soup) of "Testimonies of Faith." Please sign up to bring soups and other items here (<http://tiny.cc/soup25>). We will hear from parishioners about their experiences of faith and witness of God's grace in our lives. Inevitably, we will reflect upon our own lives and see God's grace and the presence of Jesus more clearly. For our last gathering before Holy Week we will be hearing from:

April 6th – Pam Rozelsky

Suppers will be held every Sunday night in Lent (March 9th through April 6th) from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall.
